As a result of the 2020 Census and the growth in Blackman Township's population, the Election Commission has approved the new precinct lines, and created a sixth precinct to balance and accommodate all our voters within the township. These changes will go into effect permanently in May 2022.

Precinct #6 will encompass the following streets/drives: Aldrich, Aspen, Birch Haven, Burning Tree, Catalpa, Chrismac, Coachman, Cranbrook, Fawn, Firethorn, Ginkgo, Hitching Post, Ida, Irish Acres, John Glenn, Jones, Kenzie, Kingswood, Locust, N. Meadow, Merton, Mountie Way, Murray, Northmeadow, Oakland, Oregon, Pepper Tree, Pin Oak, Ridge, Sassafras, Scarborough, Scott Carpenter, Sid, Springfield, Sweetgum, Timber, N. Valley Farm, Van Horn, Vermont, Walcott, Walden Woods, Windy Hill, Winter, Wolhavn, Woodemere, and Wyoming. Parts, but not all, of Blackman, Clinton (Rd), Cunningham, Hendee, Lansing, Morrill, Rives Junction, and Springport are affected by this change.

The residents who are registered to vote at the following streets listed will now be voting at Rivertree Community Church, 3113 Lansing Avenue. If your street is only partially affected, refer to your 2022 Voter Identification Card, or contact the Clerk's Office for clarification. Streets in Blackman Township that were not listed will remain in their same precinct.

All Blackman Township residents that are registered to vote will be receiving a new Voter Identification Card by first class mail to their registered address reflecting their new precinct and polling location.

Voters who have any questions regarding these changes, please contact the Clerk's Office at: (517) 788-4345. Thank you.
